Amnesty International is a worldwide human rights movement, independent of any government, political or religious creed. Amnesty International works for the release of persons in over 100 countries, imprisoned for reasons of conscience, provided they have neither advocated nor used violence, and for the abolition of torture and the death penalty. We welcome the involvement of individuals who wish to take part in international campaigns on behalf of individual prisoners of conscience, in urgent appeals for those being tortured and for prisoners assigned to our group. We also attempt some publicity on international human rights issues.
